Year 5 :

Date set: 18:1:19 Date due in: 23:1:19

This week we have been learning:-

English: We have looked at the language features in persuasive writing including formal language, the present tense and how an opinion is different to a fact.

Spellings: This week's spelling pattern has been the suffix -ness as in happiness. Next week's spelling pattern will be the suffix -ship as in membership

Maths: We have been learning how to add and subtract mixed numbers. This has caused a bit of a problem but, with perseverance and determination, we have become more confident.

Homework Tasks.

English: Next week we will be writing a persuasive leaflet about the planet we designed. Think of at least 2 places that you could visit on this new planet and think of powerful adjectives you could use to describe them.
