15. Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

In accordance with the legal requirements of the Immigration, Asylum & Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”) (as amended) the Governing Body is under a legal duty to require all members of staff to provide documentary evidence of their entitlement to undertake the position applied for and to ensure that they have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the UK. These checks need to be carried out for every person the Governing Body employs regardless of race, ethnicity or nationality. Therefore, on conditional offer of employment, and before a successful applicant commences their post, they must provide supporting evidence of their right to live and work in the UK. Generally speaking, the provision of one of the documents listed below will be sufficient proof but applicants are advised to consider the UK Visas and Immigration requirements for preventing illegal working in the UK for a full list of documents that may prove such entitlement which can be found on the Home Office’s website.

The most common proof of entitlement documents are:

- (a) A passport showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK.
- (b) A passport or national identity card showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of the European Economic Area or Switzerland.
- (c) A registration certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office or the Border and Immigration Agency to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (d) A permanent residence card issued by the Home Office or the Border and Immigration Agency to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (e) A current biometric immigration document issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the person named in it is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

- (f) A current passport issued by the Home Office or the Border and Immigration Agency to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the person named in it is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK when produced with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance Number and their name issued by a Government agency or previous employer.
